Pasting the URL into www.who.is can show you how old the site is.

Some scam sites are DAYS old!
Treat anything less than a year
old with caution.

It can also show you
where the site is registered.

Didn't expect it to be hosted in China?!

Then think twice, as even if you get the goods, they could be counterfeit.

Red Flag Offers...

Prices that seem too low:

80% off a brand new phone? Probably a scam!

That sold-out game console everyone's after?

If it's suddenly available at a discount, be very suspicious!
